

Legends of the South: Borjoni Forests, Rabati Fortress & Vardzia Caves

Posted on 2025 ,15 مايو by Admin

About This Tour

A breathtaking day trip from Tbilisi exploring the lush forests of Borjoni, the medieval fortress of Rabati, and the ancient cave city of Vardzia a perfect blend of nature, history, and culture

Morning: Nature & Medieval Fortresses

□ Stop 1: Borjoni Central Park (8:00 AM - 9:30 AM)

- Start your day with a visit to Borjoni Central Park famous for its mineral water springs.

- Walk through scenic forest trails and taste the legendary Borjomi mineral water straight from the source.
- Option to take a cable car up the mountain for panoramic views of the park.

☐ Stop 2: Rabati Fortress, Akhaltsikhe (11:00 AM - 12:30 PM)

- Explore the Rabati Fortress, a 12th-century medieval stronghold with influences from Georgian, Ottoman, and Persian architecture.
- Walk through stone walls, towers, and mosques, and visit the museum inside the fortress.
- Enjoy stunning hilltop views over Akhaltsikhe.

Afternoon: Exploring Georgia's Ancient Cave City

☐ Stop 3: Vardzia Cave Monastery (2:00 PM - 4:00 PM)

- Discover Vardzia, a 12th-century cave monastery built by King Giorgi III and Queen Tamar.
- Explore the monastery complex, which once had over 6,000 rooms, including churches, tunnels, and wine cellars.
- Admire ancient frescoes of Queen Tamar, one of Georgia's greatest historical figures.
- Enjoy breathtaking views over the Mtkvari River Gorge.

☐ End of Tour - Return to Tbilisi (8:00 PM - 9:00 PM)